

Ilana B. Behar

Ilana B. Behar is responsible for the day-to day operations and marketing at the Seymour Group which include devising and implementing creative marketing strategies and providing support to fiduciaries in the transactional process of fiduciary-owned residential and commercial assets. She brings forth her prior experience as a paralegal at a major law firm and hones her marketing skills sharpened during her previous role at a Public Relations company and her entrepreneurial endeavors at the University of California, Berkeley, from where she received a B.A. in Peace and Conflict Studies from the International Area Studies Department.

She holds a certification as an Accredited Conflict Mediation Practitioner also from UC Berkeley, and has been actively involved in health philanthropy and in the non-profit sector. She has volunteered in a development capacity at the American Cancer Society and has garnered a coveted summer clerkship at the Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles working in the Victims of Trafficking Unit under the supervision of Staff Attorney Daliah Setareh helping secure T-Visas for domestic abuse victims. Additionally, she's established a wellness-based initiative (the HBI Collective) wherein she's brought together thought leaders and interested patrons to discuss topical health issues.

She is fluent in her native-tongue, Spanish, having been born and raised in Cali, Colombia and is a voracious reader. In her personal time she practices yoga and dance, and attends as many social and cultural music events as possible.

B.A, UC Berkeley
Accredited Conflict Mediation Practitioner (UC Berkeley)

